

ATI RN VATI Comprehensive Predictor 2019 Form B: Real exam Questions (255 Terms) All Answered, Already Graded A+ Update 2023-2024.

A nurse is assessing an infant who has water intoxication. Which of the following findings should the nurse expect? - Exact Answer: bounding pulse

A nurse is discussing the z-track administration of hydroxyzine with a newly licensed nurse. Which of the following statements indicates the newly licensed nurse understands the purpose of the technique - Exact Answer: This technique decreases the risk of subcutaneous infiltration

1. A nurse is creating a plan of care for a client who has anorexia nervosa. Which of the following interventions should the nurse include in the plan? - Exact Answer: Monitor the client for 1 hr after meals

A nurse notices smoke coming from a client's room and discovers a fire in the wastebasket. After moving the client to safety, which of the followings is the priority action? - Exact Answer: Close the fire door on the unit

A nurse is assessing a client who has delirium due to a febrile illness.

Which of the following findings should the nurse expect? - Exact

Answer: Hallucinations

1. A nurse is caring for a client following an open colectomy. Which of the following findings places the client at risk for delayed wound healing? - Exact Answer: hyperemesis

1. A home health nurse is reviewing treatment goals with a client who has diabetes mellitus. The nurse should evaluate which of the following laboratory tests to determine effective long-term management of blood glucose levels? - Exact Answer: A1C

1. A nurse is caring for a client who has neutropenia due to HIV. Which of the following precautions should the nurse take while caring for this client? - Exact Answer: Use a dedicated stethoscope

1. A nurse is caring for a client who reports difficulty falling asleep at night. Which of the following actions should the nurse take? - Exact

Answer: Tell the client to avoid drinking fluids 1 hr before bedtime

1. A nurse is planning care for a newborn who has hyperbilirubinemia and is to receive phototherapy. Which of the following interventions should the nurse include? - Exact Answer: Place the newborn 45 cm from the light source

1. A nurse is planning care for a client who has schizophrenia and is having difficulty expressing their feelings. Which of the following referrals should the nurse make? - Exact Answer: social worker

1. A nurse is caring for a client who has heart failure and has started taking a loop diuretic. Which of the following findings indicates the client is experiencing an adverse effect of the medication - Exact Answer: decreased reflexes

1. At the start of an evening shift on a cardiac unit, a licensed practical nurse brings the nurse a list of client reports. Which of the following client reports should the nurse assess first? - Exact Answer: indigestion

1. A nurse is caring for a client who has just returned to the unit following a bronchoscopy. Which of the following actions by the assistive personnel requires the nurse to intervene? - Exact Answer: offer oral fluids to the client

1. A nurse on a medical unit has just received change-of-shift report. Which of the following clients should the nurse assess first? - Exact Answer: A 68 year old client who had a myocardial infarction 2 days ago and reports chest pain as a 4 on a scale of 0 to 10

1. A nurse is assessing a client prior to performing a blood draw. The nurse should identify that an allergy to which of the following food can indicate that the client has an allergy to latex? - Exact Answer: avocados

1. A nurse is preparing to witness a client's signature on an informed consent for a total knee arthroplasty. Which of the following client statements indicates the nurse should contact the surgeon? - Exact Answer: I am thankful there are no serious complications from this type of surgery

1. A nurse is admitting a client who has antisocial personality disorder. Which of the following client behaviors should the nurse identify as consistent with this disorder? - Exact Answer: Uses others for personal gain

1. A nurse is teaching the parent of a school-age child who has scabies about the application of permethrin 5% cream. The nurse should include which of the following as a potential adverse effect of the medication? - Exact Answer: burning

1. A nurse is teaching a client who has a new prescription for digoxin. Which of the following statements should the nurse include in the teaching? - Exact Answer: muscle weakness

1. A nurse is planning teaching for a client who is at 10 weeks of gestation and has a history of urinary tract infections. Which of the following information should the nurse plan to include in the teaching about UTI prevention? - Exact Answer: a. Empty the bladder before and after intercourse

1. A nurse is providing discharge teaching to a client who is postpartum and plans to breastfeed. Which of the following should the nurse recommend the client increase in their diet during lactation? - Exact Answer: Calcium

1. A nurse is providing teaching about preventing mastitis to a client who is postpartum and breastfeeding her newborn. Which of the following instructions should the nurse include? - Exact Answer: Try to have your baby empty your breasts with each feeding."

1. A nurse is caring for a client who reports chest pain. Which of the following findings indicates myocardial damage? - Exact Answer: Troponin I 1.8 ng/mL

1. A nurse is providing teaching about car seat safety to the parent of a term newborn. Which of the following statements by the parent indicates an understanding of the teaching? - Exact Answer: "I should place my baby's car seat rear-facing until 6 months of age."

1. A nurse is performing high-frequency chest compressions using a mechanical chest compression device for a child who has cystic fibrosis. Which of the following findings indicates the treatment has been effective? - Exact Answer: The child has increased sputum production

1. A nurse is caring for a client following a possible exposure to anthrax. Which of the following actions should the nurse take? - Exact Answer: antitoxin

1. A nurse is caring for a client who has a newly implanted sealed internal radiation device to treat cervical cancer. Which of the following is an appropriate action for the nurse to take? - Exact Answer: Keep a 3 foot distance from the radiation implant

A nurse is admitting a client to the medical-surgical unit. Which of the following actions should the nurse take first? - Exact Answer: Observe the client's level of mobility

1. A nurse at a public health clinic is caring for a group of clients. Which of the following should the nurse identify as a reportable diagnosis to the CDC? - Exact Answer: hep A

1. A charge nurse is evaluating the time management skills of a newly licensed nurse. Which of the following actions should the charge nurse identify as an effective time management skill? - Exact Answer: Completes activities for one client before moving to the next client

1. A nurse is caring for a client who has opioid use disorder and is experiencing withdrawal. Which of the following findings should the nurse expect? - Exact Answer: Hyperreflexia

1. A nurse is planning to perform wound irrigation for a client who has an open secondary wound. When creating a sterile field, which of the following actions should the nurse take? - Exact Answer: Hold the bottle of sterile solution with the palm over the label while pouring

1. A nurse is planning care for a client who has a sealed radiation implant and is to remain in the hospital for 1 week. Which of the following should the nurse include in the plan of care? - Exact Answer: Wear a dosimeter film badge while in the client's room

1. A nurse is assessing a client who was brought to the emergency department by his adult child. The client has visible contusions on all four extremities. Which of the following actions should the nurse take? - Exact Answer: Report the incident to Adult Protective Services

1. A nurse is assessing a client who is postoperative following abdominal surgery. The client states, "I feel like my incision ripped open." The nurse notes dehiscence of the incision. Which of the following actions should the nurse take? - Exact Answer: Extend the client's legs above heart level

1. A nurse is providing teaching to the parent of a 6 month old infant who is teething and having difficulty sleeping. Which of the following instructions should the nurse include? - Exact Answer: Administer acetaminophen drops to your child before bedtime

1. A nurse is providing dietary teaching to a client who has an increased cholesterol level. Which of the following foods should the nurse recommend? - Exact Answer: egg whites

1. A home health nurse is teaching a guardian about administering tube feedings to their 3 month old infant. Which of the following information should the nurse include in the teaching? - Exact Answer: Allow the infant to suck on a pacifier during feedings

1. A charge nurse is creating assignments for the next shift for several nurses and one of the nurses is pregnant. Which of the following clients should the charge nurse assign to a nurse who is not pregnant? - Exact Answer: A 60 year old client who is recovering from shingles

1. A nurse is assessing a client who has a magnesium level of 4.4 mEq/L. Which of the following findings should the nurse expect? - Exact

Answer: Hypotension

1. A nurse is reviewing the medical record of a client who has a new prescription for gentamicin. The nurse should identify that concurrent use with which of the following current medications can increase the client's risk for ototoxicity? - Exact Answer: Furosemide

1. A nurse is performing triage following a natural disaster. Which of the following clients should the nurse identify as the highest priority to receive care? - Exact Answer: client who has a traumatic arm amputation

1. A nurse is assessing a client who is gravida 2, para 1. The client is at 41 weeks of gestation and is receiving oxytocin for the augmentation of labor. The nurse should decrease the infusion rate for which of the following findings? - Exact Answer: Contractions occur every 90 seconds

1. A nurse is caring for a client who has constricted pupils, delayed reflexes, and decreased blood pressure. The nurse should identify that these findings are potential manifestations of which of the following? -

Exact Answer: a. Opioid intoxication

1. A nurse is precepting a nursing student who brings the following client observations to the nurse's attention. Which of the following clients should the nurse assess first? - Exact Answer: a. A client who is coughing up pink-tinged sputum following a bronchoscopy and lung biopsy 1 hr ago

1. A nurse manager is reviewing documentation standards with a group of newly licensed nurses. Which of the following statements should the nurse manager include in the teaching? - Exact Answer: a. Include the complete name of the medication morphine sulfate

1. A community health nurse is performing a vision screening on a 4 month old infant. When shining a light source into the infant's visual field, which of the following is an expected finding? - Exact Answer: the infant closes their eyes

1. A nurse is teaching a client and their family about home hospice care. Which of the following information should the nurse include in the teaching? - Exact Answer: a. Hospice care improves quality of life through palliative care

1. A nurse is preparing to administer eye drops to a client. Which of the following nursing actions is appropriate? - Exact Answer: a. Use aseptic technique and drop the medication into the conjunctival sac

1. A nurse manager at a public health clinic is concerned about the rising number of sexually transmitted infections in the community. The purpose of which of the following is to generate new ideas to address the public health concern? - Exact Answer: a. A brainstorming session with nurses

1. A nurse is teaching a group of farmworkers who work with pesticide about minimizing exposure. Which of the following information should the nurse include in the teaching? - Exact Answer: a. Change clothes after working in the field

1. A nurse is caring for a client who has cirrhosis of the liver. Which of the following actions should the nurse take? - Exact Answer: a. Monitor for abdominal ascites

1. A nurse is caring for a client who is receiving systematic desensitization therapy to treat agoraphobia. Which of the following client statements should indicate to the nurse that the treatment has been effective? - Exact Answer: a. I was able to sit on a park bench for 30 minutes

1. A nurse is caring for a client who is receiving a blood transfusion at 125mL/hr and develops a hemolytic reaction. Which of the following actions should the nurse perform? - Exact Answer: a. Infuse 0.9% sodium chloride IV

1. A nurse is caring for a client who had a partial laryngectomy and is receiving continuous enteral feedings at 65mL/hr through a gastrostomy tube. Which of the following findings requires immediate intervention by the nurse? - Exact Answer: a. The gastric residual volume is 250 mL following 2 hr of infusion

1. A nurse is providing postoperative teaching to a client who has a newly-inserted pacemaker. Which of the following statements by the client indicates that the teaching has been effective? - Exact Answer: a. I will go to my cardiologist's office when the battery needs to be changed

1. A nurse in a mental health facility is evaluating the effectiveness of mechanical restraints for a client who threw a chair in the day room. The nurse should identify which of the following findings as an indication to remove the restraints? - Exact Answer: a. The client apologizes for their aggressive behavior

1. A nurse is preparing to administer an IV bolus of albumin 5% to a client who is receiving a continuous IV infusion. After confirming compatibility, which of the following actions should the nurse take? - Exact Answer: a. Occlude the IV tubing above the injection port

1. A nurse is caring for a client who is postpartum and has a new prescription for methylergonovine for vaginal bleeding refractory to fundal massage and oxytocin. When reviewing the client's medical history, the nurse should recognize which of the following diagnoses as a contraindication to the administration of methylergonovine? - Exact Answer: hypertensio

1. A nurse is caring for a client who has a prescription for vancomycin 1 g IV every 12 hr. The client is scheduled to have the morning dose at

0700. The nurse should schedule the trough level to be drawn at which of the following times? - Exact Answer: 1800

1. A nurse is performing a skin assessment for a client who is on bedrest. Which of the following actions should the nurse take to prevent a pressure injury? - Exact Answer: a. Apply a donut ring pillow under the client's sacral area

1. A nurse from the State Health Development is instructing a group of nurses regarding reportable infections. Which of the following infections should the nurse report to the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention? - Exact Answer: lyme disease

1. A home health nurse is admitting a client who is prescribed peritoneal dialysis. Which of the following actions should the nurse take first? - Exact Answer: a. Demonstrate how to perform the procedure

1. A nurse is performing an admission assessment for a client who is to undergo a colonoscopy. The client informs the nurse that he took his prescribed medications before coming to the clinic. Which of the following medications is the priority to report to the provider? - Exact Answer: a. Metformin