Chandra now wants her attorney to file a motion to have the judge rule in her favor without having to proceed further. Chandra does not know whether the motion to dismiss or the motion for a summary judgment is proper. Which motion is proper and why?

AN As between the motion to dismiss and the motion for summary judgment, Chandra's attorney should file a motion for SWsummary judgment, since the parties are beyond the pleadings stage of litigation, and since they have completed ER:discovery. Using evidence gathered during discovery, such as affidavits and/or deposition testimony, Chandra's attorney could argue that there are no material issues of fact disputed by the parties, and that Chandra is entitled to judgment as a matter of law.
