| Name:   | Class:                                       | Date:                                    |
|---|--|--|
| Ch02: Building Trust and Sales Ethics   |  |  |
| True / False  |  |  |
| In the context of buyer–seller relationsl or her company can offer the best deals.     a. True     b. False             | nips, if credibility is the concern, then th | e salesperson must demonstrate how his   |
| ANSWER: False   |  |  |
| <ul><li>2. Relationship selling focuses on an orga</li><li>a. True</li><li>b. False</li></ul>                           | nization's short-term marketing strategy     |  |
| ANSWER: False   |  |  |
| 3. In today's increasingly competitive many with a large number of suppliers.  a. True                                  | ketplace, buyers are finding it more effe    | ective and efficient to do more business |
| b. False  |  |  |
| ANSWER: False   |  |  |
| <ul><li>4. Today's contemporary selling process i</li><li>a. True</li><li>b. False</li></ul>                            | s embedded within the relationship mark      | keting paradigm.                         |
| ANSWER: True  |  |  |
| <ul><li>5. A trustworthy salesperson understands relationship.</li><li>a. True</li><li>b. False</li></ul> ANSWER: False | doing "anything to get an order" will ult    | imately strengthen the buyer–seller      |
| <ul><li>6. A customer-oriented salesperson cover customer.</li><li>a. True</li><li>b. False</li></ul> ANSWER: True      | s both the pros and cons of a recommend      | ded product when making a sale to a      |
| 7. A selection and bounded a federal con-   | Charles and a first of a first of a first    |  |
| 7. A salesperson's knowledge is irrelevant a. True  | t in the process of earning the trust of a t | buyer.                                   |
| b. False  ANSWER: False   |  |  |
| ANOWEN. I dist  |  |  |
| <ul><li>8. Knowledge of a product's features is su</li><li>a. True</li><li>b. False</li><li>ANSWER: False</li></ul>     | fficient for a salesperson to describe the   | product to a customer.                   |

| Name:   | Class:                                 | Date:                                   |
|---|--|---|
| Ch02: Building Trust and Sales Ethics   |  |   |
| 9. The ability to use promotion knowledge a buyer who is ready to make a decision and a a. True b. False  ANSWER: True                      |  |   |
| ANSWER. True  |  |   |
| <ul><li>10. Larger companies typically break their contact.</li><li>a. True</li><li>b. False</li><li>ANSWER: True</li></ul>                 | ustomers into distinct markets.        |   |
| <ul><li>11. Information about customers is gathered</li><li>a. True</li><li>b. False</li></ul>  | by companies over time and from ve     | ry different sources.                   |
| ANSWER: True  |  |   |
| 12. Salespeople who can offer better service taking away business from the competition. a. True b. False                                    | than their competitors have an advar   | ntage for generating new business and   |
| ANSWER: True  |  |   |
| <ul><li>13. The prices quoted and discounts offered</li><li>a. True</li><li>b. False</li></ul>  | by a salesperson do not legally bind a | a company to their completion.          |
| ANSWER: False   |  |   |
| <ul><li>14. A salesperson can learn how the entire mental to focus on only one line of business.</li><li>a. True</li><li>b. False</li></ul> | narketplace uses his or her company's  | products more quickly than if he or she |
| ANSWER: False   |  |   |
| 15. Using the Web to do an initial search on markets they serve, and so on. a. True b. False  ANSWER: True                                  | a company can tell a salesperson who   | at products a company makes, what       |
| <ul><li>16. Good salespeople must adjust their selling</li><li>a. True</li><li>b. False</li><li>ANSWER: True</li></ul>                      | ng strategy depending on their compe   | tition.                                 |
|   | voing a mail as it aliminates are and  | onihility of minundaratandina           |
| 17. Salespeople should always communicate   | cusing e-man as it enminates any pos   | ssidinty of misunderstanding.           |

| Name:   | Class:  | Date       |
|---|---|------------|
| Ch02: Building Trust and Sales Ethics           | s  |            |
| a. True   |   |            |
| b. False  |   |            |
| ANSWER: False                                   |   |            |
| 18. Salespeople should not use e-mail to        | send out mass communications to customers and       | prospects. |
| a. True   |   |            |
| b. False  |   |            |
| ANSWER: False                                   |   |            |
| 19. Salespeople can use Global Position a. True | ing System (GPS) technology to better serve their   | clients.   |
| b. False  |   |            |
| ANSWER: True                                    |   |            |
| 20. Salespeople are exposed to fewer eth        | hical pressures than individuals in most other occu | ipations.  |
| a. True   |   |            |
| b. False  |   |            |
| ANSWER: False                                   |   |            |
| Multiple Choice                                 |   |            |
| 21. Identify a true statement about trust.      |   |            |
| a. Trust in a buyer-seller relationsh           | ip is always defined by the seller.                 |            |
| b. Trust in a buyer-seller relationsh           | ip is diminished by candor.                         |            |
| c. Trust can mean different things to           | o different people.                                 |            |
| d. Trust is unrelated to the concept of         | of referral.  |            |
| e. Trust in any relationship constitu           | ites of the same characteristics universally.       |            |
| ANSWER: c                                       |   |            |
| 22. Buyers define trust with terms such a       | as:   |            |
| a. honesty, guile, and precariousnes            | 88.   |            |
| b. enablement, candor, and guile.               |   |            |
| c. candor, fairness, and confidential           | lity.   |            |
| d. predictability, infraction, and can          | ndor.   |            |
| e. security, honesty, and defraudme             | ent.  |            |
| ANSWER: c                                       |   |            |
| 23 refers to the quality of being f             | free from danger.                                   |            |
| a. Resilience                                   |   |            |
| b. Candor                                       |   |            |
| c. Security                                     |   |            |
| d. Confidentiality                              |   |            |
| e. Restraint                                    |   |            |

ANSWER: c

| Name:  | Class:  | Date:   |
|--|---|---|
| Ch02: Building Trust and Sales Ethics  |   |   |
| 24. Which of the following is an example of a. Selling products through exaggerate b. Using GPS to track salespeople c. Not delivering services to clients as d. Salespeople going around and telling e. Sharing information that was previous ANSWER: d   | promised  g one client what their other client is doing   | •   |
|  |   |   |
| <ul> <li>25. Identify an example of engaging in ope</li> <li>a. A seller reasoning with a client who</li> <li>b. A seller letting the buyer know abou</li> <li>c. A seller not relying on the basis of t</li> <li>d. A seller sharing information that wa</li> <li>e. A seller addressing service issues on</li> </ul> | o is making unethical demandsut his sales quotathe bargain to issue express warrantiesas traditionally not shared   |   |
| ANSWER: d  |   |   |
|  | statements before doing business with the unufacturing secrets with the company's s   | nem   |
| <ul><li>b. Perceived ethical treatment is not re</li><li>c. With the passing of years, the value</li><li>d. Little is known about what service l</li></ul>   | ets a research finding about the sales profesbuyer perceptions, trust, and relationshipelated to trust in a salesperson and purchateof ethics in the sales profession has reducebehaviors salespeople can employ to satistyowly shifting from the relationship market | loyalty. se intentions. aced substantially. sfy and build trust with customers. |
| 28. Research reveals that play a vita  | al role in influencing buyer perceptions an   | nd trust.   |
| <ul> <li>a. deal-closing sales methods and imp</li> <li>b. consultative tasks and personal relace.</li> <li>c. a transaction-oriented trust schema</li> <li>d. traditional selling methods and profese.</li> <li>e. purchase requisition and the hard-see</li> </ul>   | tionship behaviorsand service issuesit orientation  |   |

29. In the context of a buyer–seller relationship, which of the following statements is true of trust?

| Name:   | Class:  | Date:                                     |
|---|---|---|
| Ch02: Building Trust and Sales E  | Cthics                                       |   |
| a. The seller always defines tru  | st in the relationship.                             |   |
| b. It was more important in trac  | ditional selling than it is in today's relationship | o selling.                                |
| -   | ine what trust means to each of his or her buye     | -                              |
| d. It is earned when a salespers  | on believes that a customer will make a purch       | nase.                                     |
| e. It is unrelated to the concept   | of referral.  |   |
| ANSWER: c   |   |   |
| salesperson does this by:   | mine what trust attributes are critical to relatio  | onship building for a specific buyer. The |
| a. questioning the buyer.   | rom the Internet                                    |   |
| b. using market research data fr  |   |   |
| <ul><li>c. consulting his or her manage</li><li>d. using the basis of the bargair</li></ul> |   |   |
| e. using his or her own instincts   |   |   |
| ANSWER: a   | 5.  |   |
| ANSWEN. a   |   |   |
| 31 are salespeople who are inight value on trust.   | in a unique position to capitalize on building c    | credibility with customers who place a    |
| a. Consultative salespeople   |   |   |
| b. Evasive salespeople  |   |   |
| c. Transactional salespeople  |   |   |
| d. Hard sellers   |   |   |
| e. Order takers   |   |   |
| ANSWER: a   |   |   |
| 32. Which critical variable of trust i ikely address?                                       | in a salesperson does the question "Do you kno      | ow what you are talking about?" most      |
| a. Expertise  |   |   |
| b. Candor   |   |   |
| c. Tenacity   |   |   |
| d. Resilience   |   |   |
| e. Compatibility  |   |   |
| ANSWER: a   |   |   |
| ikely address?  | in a salesperson does the question "Will you re     | ecommend what is best for me?" most       |
| a. Confidentiality  |   |   |
| b. Service resilience   |   |   |
| c. Customer orientation   |   |   |
| d. Security   |   |   |
| e. Predictability   |   |   |

34. Which critical variable of trust in a salesperson does the question "Can you and your company back up your

ANSWER: c

| Name:  | Class:   | Date:                                   |
|--|--|---|
| Ch02: Building Trust and Sales Ethics   |  |   |
| promises?" most likely address?  a. Customer orientation  b. Likability  c. Service resilience  d. Dependability  e. Compatibility   |  |   |
| ANSWER: d  |  |   |
| 35. Which critical variable of trust in a salesper share with you?" most likely address?  a. Candor  b. Hospitality  c. Service resilience  d. Dependability  e. Compatibility   | erson does the question "Will you sa                                 | feguard confidential information that I |
| ANSWER: d  |  |   |
| 36. Which of the following is true of traditions a. It relied on integrative, win—win, and complete b. It focused on maintaining long-term relied. It emphasized offering customized product. It focused on closing the sale.  e. It involved a high level of problem-solve. ANSWER: d | ollaborative negotiation. lationships. ducts for limited buyers.     |   |
| 37. Which of the following statements is true a. It focuses on the immediate benefits gas b. It steers clear of the concept of mutual c. It is based on the principle of "doing ard. It involves a high level of problem-solve. It focuses on closing the sale.  ANSWER: d             | ined from short-term relationships. gain.  nything to get an order." |   |
| <ul> <li>38 refers to the ability, knowledge, and</li> <li>a. Expertise</li> <li>b. Ethics</li> <li>c. Candor</li> <li>d. Compatibility</li> <li>e. Serviceability</li> </ul>  | d resources to meet customer expecta                                 | ations.                                 |

39. Which of the following is true of young salespeople?

a. They must go the extra mile to prove to their customers their dedication to service.

b. They must attend a mandatory sales training program before they can be hired by a company.

| Name:   | Class:  | Date:                                     |
|---|---|---|
| Ch02: Building Trust and Sales Ethics   |   |   |
| •   | companies believe that expertise cannot asted by customers because of the inher re experienced salespeople. |                                    |
|   |   |   |
| <ol> <li>40 refers to something given to impa. Contribution</li> </ol>  | prove a situation or state for a buyer.   |   |
| b. Compatibility  |   |   |
| c. Enablement   |   |   |
| d. Restitution  |   |   |
| e. Serviceability   |   |   |
| ANSWER: a   |   |   |
| 41. Salespeople who always do what they sas being:  | say they are going to do earn the trust o   | of buyers because buyers perceive them    |
| a. dependable.  |   |   |
| b. resilient.   |   |   |
| c. experienced.   |   |   |
| d. egocentric.  |   |   |
| e. knowledgeable.   |   |   |
| ANSWER: a   |   |   |
| 42. Andrew is a sales representative for an with his customers and always follows throadhrew is:  |   |   |
| a. knowledgeable.   |   |   |
| b. extroverted.   |   |   |
| c. dependable.  |   |   |
| d. vulnerable.  |   |   |
| e. tactical.  |   |   |
| ANSWER: c   |   |   |
| 43 refers to a salesperson's behavio a. Candor  | r that can be foretold on the basis of ob   | eservation or experience by a buyer.      |
| b. Resilience   |   |   |
| c. Predictability   |   |   |
| d. Vulnerability  |   |   |
| e. Compatibility  |   |   |
| ANSWER: c   |   |   |
| 44. Emma goes to her favorite clothing storthem. Denver, the salesman in the store, teles he assures her that he will inform her as so delivers as he promises. In this scenario, D a. candor | lls her that the kind of trousers she is loon as they are back in the store. Emma                       | ooking for is currently out of stock, but |

| Name:  | Class:   | Date:                                |
|--|--|--------------------------------------|
| Ch02: Building Trust and Sales Ethics   |  |                                      |
| b. resilience  |  |                                      |
| c. predictability  |  |                                      |
| d. vulnerability   |  |                                      |
| e. compatibility   |  |                                      |
| ANSWER: c  |  |                                      |
| 45. Honesty of the spoken word is called   |  |                                      |
| a. candor  |  |                                      |
| b. clemency  |  |                                      |
| c. warranty  |  |                                      |
| d. brevity   |  |                                      |
| e. altruism  |  |                                      |
| ANSWER: a  |  |                                      |
| 46. Susan is hired as salesperson in a jewelry knowledge about the products offered by the the answer. However, she always responds to By being honest with her customers, Susan experience. | e store. She is often asked questions byo them by saying, "I will check with m | customers to which she does not know |
| a. clemency.   |  |                                      |
| b. resilience.   |  |                                      |
| c. predictability.   |  |                                      |
| d. candor.   |  |                                      |
| e. expertise.  |  |                                      |
| ANSWER: d  |  |                                      |
| 47. Jennifer is a salesperson for a business in that are likely to affect them despite the risk a. profit-oriented behavior  |  |                                      |
| b. resilient behavior  |  |                                      |
| c. relational behavior   |  |                                      |
| d. customer-oriented behavior  |  |                                      |
| e. covert behavior   |  |                                      |
| ANSWER: d  |  |                                      |
| 48. A salesperson's commonalities with other   | r individuals is known as  |                                      |
| a. compatibility   |  |                                      |
| b. amicability   |  |                                      |
| c. predictability  |  |                                      |
| d. candor  |  |                                      |
| e. resilience  |  |                                      |
| ANSWER: a  |  |                                      |
| 49. Phil is a salesman in a grocery store in B residents of the state. Phil frequently interact customers feel comfortable explaining to Ph Copyright Cengage Learning. Powered by Cognero.  | ts with them and is liked by most of the   | e people who visit the store. The    |

| Name:  | Class:                                      | Date:                               |
|--|---|-------------------------------------|
| Ch02: Building Trust and Sales Ethics  |   |                                     |
| a. compatibility   |   |                                     |
| b. expertise   |   |                                     |
| c. resilience  |   |                                     |
| d. candor  |   |                                     |
| e. confidentiality   |   |                                     |
| ANSWER: a  |   |                                     |
| 50. Ravi is a sales representative at a sports matches with some of his customers on wee information, it is evident that Ravi prioritize a. compatibility    | kends. By doing so, he has befriended a     | a number of his clients. Given this |
| b. confidentiality   |   |                                     |
| c. clemency  |   |                                     |
| d. candor  |   |                                     |
| e. resilience  |   |                                     |
| ANSWER: a  |   |                                     |
| ANSWER. a  |   |                                     |
| 51. Robert is a young college graduate who of being selected by employers, he decides scenario, it is evident that Robert is trying to a. industry knowledge | to enhance his knowledge of the latest n    |                                     |
| b. customer orientation  |   |                                     |
| c. promotion knowledge   |   |                                     |
| d. service resilience  |   |                                     |
| e. technology knowledge  |   |                                     |
| ANSWER: a  |   |                                     |
| 52. Nora, a salesperson who works for Fifth days of purchase for cash. However, the Fifgarments for other garments and not for cas a. industry knowledge     | th Leaf Fashion's return policy states that | at customers may only exchange      |
| b. company knowledge   |   |                                     |
| c. product knowledge   |   |                                     |
| d. promotion knowledge   |   |                                     |
| e. price knowledge   |   |                                     |
| ANSWER: b  |   |                                     |
|  |   |                                     |
| 53. A salesperson should be familiar with h  |   | neips:                              |
| a. determine the company's human reso  | •   | and a                               |
| •  | on needs help in meeting a customer's no    | æus.                                |
| c. prevent the stereotyping of salespeop   |   |                                     |
| d. adopt traditional methods of selling  |   |                                     |
| e minimize the chances of the calcenat   | SOU PROGRAMM IN HIPMAL DENAMAT              |                                     |

| Name:  | Class:                              | Date:                                  |
|--|-------------------------------------|--|
| Ch02: Building Trust and Sales Ethics   |                                     |  |
| 54. A salesperson must know what his or her co   | ommodity can and cannot do. For t   | his, the salesperson must have sound   |
| a. promotion knowledge   |                                     |  |
| b. industry knowledge  |                                     |  |
| c. product knowledge   |                                     |  |
| d. inventory knowledge   |                                     |  |
| e. market knowledge  |                                     |  |
| ANSWER: c  |                                     |  |
| 55. Which of the following questions must a sal product knowledge?   | lesperson be able to answer in orde | er to demonstrate that he or she has   |
| a. Who are the major competitors in the ma   | arket?                              |  |
| b. Who is responsible for delivering goods   | to a customer?                      |  |
| c. What materials are used when making th  | ne goods?                           |  |
| d. When is it most appropriate to follow-up  | with a customer?                    |  |
| e. What is the company's market share for a  | a particular commodity?             |  |
| ANSWER: c  |                                     |  |
| 56. Josie, a sales professional for a company that the best salesperson because she has a detailed uncluding how they work and how they are mad a. propositional knowledge | understanding of all the appliances | s manufactured by the company,         |
| b. promotion knowledge   |                                     |  |
| c. market knowledge  |                                     |  |
| d. inventory knowledge   |                                     |  |
| e. product knowledge   |                                     |  |
| ANSWER: a  |                                     |  |
| 57. A salesperson who is ready to answer the qu the company send them to a third party?" can ef  |                                     | and maintain its sold products or does |
| a. administrative issues   |                                     |  |
| b. market regulation issues  |                                     |  |
| c. management issues   |                                     |  |
| d. service issues  |                                     |  |
| e. promotional issues  ANSWER: d   |                                     |  |
| 58. A salesperson's service mission is to:   |                                     |  |
| a. convince customers to make a purchase a   | at any cost.                        |  |
| b. give fewer express warranties.  | -                                   |  |
| c. maximize the number of sales.   |                                     |  |
| d. provide added value for customers.  |                                     |  |
| e. practice the hard-sell approach.  |                                     |  |
| ANSWER: d  |                                     |  |

| Name:   | Class:   | Date:                      |
|---|--|----------------------------|
| Ch02: Building Trust and Sales I  | Ethics   |                            |
| •   | to understand what service dimensions concernon "Do we send a team to your site for start-up?"         | •                          |
| ANSWER: d   |  |                            |
| is a knowledge tool that a. Promotion knowledge b. Service knowledge c. Propositional knowledge d. Tacit knowledge e. Competition knowledge | salespeople must possess to explain their firms'   | advertising programs.      |
|   | a sales representative at a grocery store. As partunts offered by the store. In this scenario, the sto |                            |
| a. promotion knowledge  |  |                            |
| b. market knowledge   |  |                            |
| c. industry knowledge   |  |                            |
| d. inventory knowledge  |  |                            |
| e. propositional knowledge  |  |                            |
| ANSWER: a   |  |                            |
| <ul><li>a. Price knowledge</li><li>b. Inventory knowledge</li><li>c. Propositional knowledge</li><li>d. Market knowledge</li></ul>          | speople must have in order to quote rates and off  | Fer discounts on products. |
| e. Product knowledge  |  |                            |
| ANSWER: a   |  |                            |
| additional discounts to get a potenta. Price knowledge  | dge tools must a salesperson use to answer the qual client whom the company has been after for y           |                            |
| b. Inventory knowledge  |  |                            |
| c. Technology knowledge   |  |                            |
| d. Market knowledge   |  |                            |
| e. Product knowledge  |  |                            |

ANSWER: a

| Name:  | Class:  | Date:   |
|--|---|---|
| Ch02: Building Trust and Sales Ethics   |   |   |
| 64 refers to information salespeop a. Product knowledge  | ole must have if larger companies break   | their customers into distinct segments                                      |
| b. Price knowledge   |   |   |
| c. Technology knowledge  |   |   |
| d. Promotion knowledge   |   |   |
| e. Market knowledge  |   |   |
| ANSWER: a  |   |   |
| 65. Milton is the sales manager of a cosme makeup. Some of the company's products individual buyers. Milton decides to divide salespeople can target each segment more | are sold to wholesalers and distributors, e the company's vast customer base into | , while others are sold directly to distinct segments so that the company's |
| a. product knowledge   |   |   |
| b. inventory knowledge   |   |   |
| c. competitor knowledge  |   |   |
| d. promotion knowledge   |   |   |
| e. market knowledge  |   |   |
| ANSWER: a  |   |   |
| 66. Larger companies typically break their this sales strategy?  | customers into distinct markets. Which  | n of the following statements is true of                                    |
| a. It involves following a common ma   | arketing strategy for all customers.  |   |
| b. It results in an overall decrease in c  | customer satisfaction.  |   |
| c. It creates more gaps between a sale   | sperson and his customer base.  |   |
| d. It allows a salesperson to become a   | n expert in a line of business.   |   |
| e. It lets a company maintain better in  | iventory control.   |   |
| ANSWER: d  |   |   |
| 67 is defined as information about the salesperson determine buyer needs to a. Competitor knowledge  | 3   | d from very different sources that helps                                    |
| b. Product knowledge   |   |   |
| c. Customer knowledge  |   |   |
| d. Industry knowledge  |   |   |
| e. Promotion knowledge   |   |   |
| ANSWER: c  |   |   |
| 68. Tony has recently been hired as a sales markets based on the requirements of each To understand his clients' purchasing beha                                       | n market. Tony has been asked to work   | exclusively with emerging entrepreneurs.                                    |
| a. propositional knowledge   |   |   |

b. inventory knowledgec. customer knowledge

| Name:  | Class:                                 | Date:                      |
|--|--|----------------------------|
| Ch02: Building Trust and Sales Ethics   |  |                            |
| d. technology knowledge  |  |                            |
| e. promotion knowledge   |  |                            |
| ANSWER: c  |  |                            |
| 69. "Why should I use your product over the one salesperson must have to answer this questa, inventory knowledge | · · ·                                  | e question a buyer asks. A |
| b. promotion knowledge   |  |                            |
| c. customer knowledge  |  |                            |
| d. competitive knowledge   |  |                            |
| e. policy knowledge  |  |                            |
| ANSWER: d  |  |                            |
| 70 refers to information salespeople mus   | st have about the latest applied scier | nces.                      |
| a. Embedded knowledge  |  |                            |
| b. Technology knowledge  |  |                            |
| c. Process knowledge   |  |                            |
| d. Market knowledge  |  |                            |
| e. Inventory knowledge   |  |                            |
| ANSWER: b  |  |                            |
| 71. In the context of buyer–seller communication technology?   | n, which of the following is probably  | the most oversold form of  |
| a. Expert systems  |  |                            |
| b. Voice mails   |  |                            |
| c. Pagers  |  |                            |
| d. Fax machines  |  |                            |
| e. Intranets   |  |                            |
| ANSWER: b  |  |                            |
| 72. Global Positioning Systems (GPSes) help:   |  |                            |
| a. sales organizations acquire industry know   | •                                      |                            |
| b. buyers place price updates on the Web for   |  |                            |
| c. transmit non-electronic documents 24 hou  | ırs a day.                             |                            |
| d. salespeople plan their routes effectively.  |  |                            |
| e. buyers and sellers communicate virtually.   |  |                            |
| ANSWER: d  |  |                            |
| 73. Companies use Global Positioning System (C   | •                                      | salesforce because:        |
| a. salespeople, in general, cannot be trusted  |  |                            |
| b. it is mandatory for logistics companies to  |  | ill times.                 |
| c. salespeople prefer joining companies that   | use GPS.                               |                            |

d. it improves salesforce effectiveness and minimizes costs.

| Name:  | Class:  | Date:                                     |
|--|---|---|
| Ch02: Building Trust and Sales Et                      | chics                                      |   |
| e. it is impossible to reach out to ANSWER: d          | o customers without using such technology.        |   |
| a. Propositional knowledge                             | f a rival company's strengths and weaknesses in   | n the market.                             |
| b. Promotion knowledge                                 |   |   |
| c. Customer knowledge                                  |   |   |
| d. Competitor knowledge                                |   |   |
| e. Inventory knowledge ANSWER: d                       |   |   |
|  |   |   |
| 75. "How do your company's prices his or her           | compare with others in your industry?" is a que   | estion that requires a salesperson to use |
| a. inventory knowledge                                 |   |   |
| b. promotion knowledge                                 |   |   |
| c. market knowledge                                    |   |   |
| d. competitor knowledge                                |   |   |
| e. policy knowledge                                    |   |   |
| ANSWER: d  |   |   |
| 76. Comparisons of the products of a when the company: | a company's competitors for a customer's buying   | ng decisions are critical, especially     |
| a. practices traditional selling m                     | ethods.   |   |
| b. has customers who have been                         | loyal for a long time.                            |   |
| c. possesses features and benefi                       | ts that are superior to those of the competition. |   |
| d. lacks up-to-date technology a                       | nd has outdated manufacturing processes.          |   |
| e. is newer than the competition                       | and has less relevant experience.                 |   |
| ANSWER: c  |   |   |
| 77. Which of the following technolo a. A mimeograph    | gies allows non-electronic documents to be tran   | nsmitted 24 hours a day?                  |
| b. A facsimile   |   |   |
| c. A voice mail  |   |   |
| d. A barcode scanner                                   |   |   |
| e. A conveyor system                                   |   |   |
| ANSWER: b  |   |   |
| 78. Identify an advantage of salespec                  | ople using e-mail to communicate with buyers.     |   |
| · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·                  | ted as a more formal form of communication the    |   |
| b. Mass communications can be                          | sent out to all customers and prospects.          |   |

c. E-mail technology is the safest platform for virtual communication.d. There is no scope for misunderstandings between buyers and sellers.

e. E-mails are the only way for buyers and sellers to have immediate contact with each other.

| Name: | Class: | Date: |
|-------|--------|-------|
|       |        |       |

Ch02: Building Trust and Sales Ethics

- 79. _____ refers to the right and wrong conduct of individuals and the institutions of which they are a part.
  - a. Conscience
  - b. Ethics
  - c. Aesthetics
  - d. Jurisprudence
  - e. Apathy

ANSWER: b

- 80. Which of the following statements is true of ethical standards?
  - a. Ethical standards are not influenced by a person's code of conduct.
  - b. Ethical standards for a profession are based on society's standards.
  - c. Ethical standards are the same as legal standards in all organizational aspects.
  - d. Ethical standards do not affect the public regard of professions.
  - e. Ethical standards have not yet been completely integrated into the sales profession.

ANSWER: b

- 81. Which of the following is true of Sales and Marketing Executives International (SMEI)?
  - a. Those who attain an SMEI certification should consider its principles as mere rules to follow.
  - b. It is concerned with the image of salespeople.
  - c. SMEI programs are designed primarily to protect salespeople from unethical employment practices.
  - d. It is an organization that fights for the employment rights of salespeople.
  - e. It has developed a 1- to 2-month certification process for the professional conduct of salespeople.

ANSWER: b

- 82. Salespeople are often stereotyped as pushy, shifty, and untrustworthy because:
  - a. they tend to be overly professional in their approach.
  - b. traditional selling methods are common even today.
  - c. the sales profession does not follow a standard code of conduct.
  - d. the sales profession requires them to be shrewd and manipulative.
  - e. in the past, the popular press portrayed them in this way.

ANSWER: e

- 83. Which of the following is one of the ways in which television programs, movies, and the press during the 1960s and 1970s affected the sales profession?
  - a. They portrayed the profession as reputable.
  - b. They contributed to boosting the sale of products.
  - c. They helped curb unethical sales practices.
  - d. They helped it become a mainstream profession.
  - e. They fostered a negative image of salespeople.

ANSWER: a

- 84. When faced with quota pressure, a salesperson with customer orientation would most likely:
  - a. overstate the benefits of the recommended product.

| Name:  | Class:  | Date:  |
|--|---|--|
| Ch02: Building Trust and Sales Ethics   |   |  |
| b. avoid issuing express warranties.   |   |  |
| c. practice the hard-sell approach.  |   |  |
| d. engage in fast talking.   |   |  |
| e. explain the cons of the recommended   | product.  |  |
| ANSWER: a  |   |  |
| 85. In the context of buyer–seller interactions engage in deceptive behavior?  a. Faulty products sold by the company  | s, which of the following is an excuse  | e commonly used by some salespeople to                       |
| b. The buyer's bad conduct   |   |  |
| c. Lack of job satisfaction  |   |  |
| d. The pressure of meeting the sales quo   | ta  |  |
| e. Their professional predisposition to be   |   |  |
| ANSWER: d  | eing deceptive  |  |
| 86. Jim, an inexperienced salesperson, informater processing speed than the competitor's remains unconvinced and does not make the a. fails to be perceived as an expert by the b. fails to practice the hard-sell approach c. is unable to convince the customer to d. exaggerates the benefits of his product e. is unable to meet his sales quota.  ANSWER: d  87. Which of the following would be consider a. Engaging in fast talking b. Withholding information c. Using the hard-sell approach d. Misusing company assets e. Exaggerating product benefits  ANSWER: d | laptop despite being aware that this is purchase. Jim's behavior is considerent customer.  n.  make a purchase.  t. | is not true. The customer, however, ed unethical because he: |
| 88. In the context of activities that are considered constitute violations of the and are offer a. Sales and Marketing Executives Interests. Described by practices of the hard-sell approach c. Securities and Exchange Commission d. Internal Revenue Service regulations e. standards of customer-oriented behave ANSWER: d   | enses that could lead to jail or heavy national Code of Ethics regulations  |  |
| 89 is an example of an illegal activity a. Engaging in fast talking  | in the sales profession.  |  |

| Name:   | Class:                                 | Date:                                    |
|---|--|--|
| Ch02: Building Trust and Sales Ethics             |  |  |
| b. Withholding information                        |  |  |
| c. Hard sell                                      |  |  |
| d. Bribery  |  |  |
| e. Exaggeration                                   |  |  |
| ANSWER: d   |  |  |
| 90. Salespeople can create product liabilities fo | or a company in three ways. These w    | vays include:                            |
| a. coercion, promotion, and sales presenta        |  |  |
| b. sales quota, fast talking, and shifty beha     | avior.                                 |  |
| c. ethical behavior, assertiveness, and seco      |  |  |
| d. express warranty, misrepresentation, an        | •                                      |  |
| e. discounts, pricing policy, and quality as      |  |  |
| ANSWER: d   |  |  |
| 91 are created by any affirmation of fac          | et or promise, any description, or any | v sample or model that a salesperson     |
| uses, which is made part of the basis of the bar  |  | r  |
| a. No-bid contracts                               |  |  |
| b. Product keys                                   |  |  |
| c. Open-source licenses                           |  |  |
| d. Express warranties                             |  |  |
| e. Contracts of adhesion                          |  |  |
| ANSWER: d   |  |  |
| 92. The term refers to false claim(s) ma          | de by a salesperson.                   |  |
| a. sales quota                                    |  |  |
| b. proposition                                    |  |  |
| c. ultimatum                                      |  |  |
| d. misinterpretation                              |  |  |
| e. evasion  |  |  |
| ANSWER: d   |  |  |
| 93 refers to false claim(s) made by a sa          | lesperson about the product or service | ce he or she is trying to sell.          |
| a. Ultimatum                                      |  |  |
| b. Libel  |  |  |
| c. Slander  |  |  |
| d. Negligence                                     |  |  |
| e. Evasion  |  |  |
| ANSWER: d   |  |  |
| 94. In the context of buyer–seller relationships  | , is taken to mean that the buy        | ver relied on the seller's statements in |
| making the purchase decision.                     |  |  |
| a. unconscionable dealing                         |  |  |
| b. basis of the bargain                           |  |  |
| e a racinal nacio                                 |  |  |

| Name: | Class: | Date: |
|-------|--------|-------|
|-------|--------|-------|

Ch02: Building Trust and Sales Ethics

- d. undue influence
- e. a contract of adhesion

ANSWER: b

- 95. Kenneth goes to an electronics store to buy a television for himself. At the store, the salesperson shows him a flat-screen television and claims that it is currently the best high-definition television in the market. He also claims that the product is designed to reduce strain on the eyes. Kenneth purchases the television based on the salesperson's claims. Which of the following concepts does this scenario best represent?
  - a. Unconscionable dealing
  - b. The basis of the bargain
  - c. Cold calling
  - d. Partnership selling
  - e. A contract of adhesion

ANSWER: b

- 96. Which of the following statements is true about the claims made by a seller about his or her products?
  - a. The burden of accuracy of the claims made by the seller is on the management.
  - b. Salespeople are required by law to exercise reasonable care in formulating claims.
  - c. Misrepresentation of product benefits cannot lead to product liability if the seller makes a false claim thinking it is true.
  - d. A seller cannot be legally held for unintentionally making false claims or not delivering on his or her claims.
  - e. A seller is not allowed to use his or her discretion in making claims.

ANSWER: b

- 97. If a salesperson does not exercise "reasonable care" in formulating product claims to a customer, he or she is guilty of
  - a. candor
  - b. negligence
  - c. breach of confidentiality
  - d. illicit behavior
  - e. notoriety

ANSWER: b

- 98. Which of the following is an example of non-customer-oriented behavior?
  - a. Exhibiting candor in sales presentations
  - b. Fast talking
  - c. Evading quota pressure
  - d. Fidgeting
  - e. Misusing company assets

- 99. In the context of sales ethics, which of the following is true of an expense account?
  - a. It abets unethical behavior within a sales organization.
  - b. It is an important training area in the sales profession.

| Name: | Class: | Date: |
|-------|--------|-------|
|-------|--------|-------|

Ch02: Building Trust and Sales Ethics

- c. Companies do not cover the use of expense accounts in training programs that deal with sales ethics.
- d. It is mandatory for all companies to allow personal mileage to be included in the expense account.
- e. Expense account forms are filled out by first-level managers and not by salespeople.

ANSWER: b

100. Sometimes, in a buyer—seller relationship, unethical behavior is not initiated by the salesperson but by the buyer. Which of the following is an example of buyers engaging in unethical behavior?

- a. Asking the salesperson to elaborate on the features of other similar products sold in the market, especially those of a rival company
- b. Asking the salesperson to move him or her up on the order list in exchange for more business in the future
- c. Asking the selling organization to focus on creating more product liability
- d. Asking for more discounts on products than what has already been offered
- e. Asking the salesperson about the service facilities offered by the seller before purchasing the product