

ATI PN COMPREHENSIVE PREDICTOR ACTUAL EXAM WITH NGN 2023-2024 UPDATE(JUNE) ALL 180 QUESTIONS AND CORRECT ANSWERS ALREADY A GRADED WITH EXPERT FEEDBACK

a nurse is caring for a client who has dehydration due to diarrhea. Which of the following findings should the nurse report to the provider? - ANSWER- b. urine output 12 ml/hr a nurse is providing pre op care to a client who reports he has no one at home to help him after his outpatient surgery. Which of the following actions should the nurse take? - ANSWER- a. assist with a referral to a home health care agency a nurse is assisting with monitoring a client who is receiving a unit of packed rbc's. which of the following findings indicates the client is experiencing a transfusion reaction? - ANSWER- a. temp 38.8C (101.8F) a nurse is monitoring a client who is post op. Which of the following actions should the nurse take when collecting data about the clients respirations - ANSWER- c. observe the movements of the client's chest wall a nurse is reinforcing teaching with a client who is postop following a partial gastrectomy. Which of the following instructions should the nurse include to prevent dumping syndrome? - ANSWER- a. include one serving of protein with each meal a nurse is reinforcing teaching with a client who has a new prescription for a cervical cap as a form of contraception. Which of the following statements by the client indicates an understanding of the teaching? - ANSWER- c. i need to keep the cap in place for at least 6 hours after intercourse a nurse is preparing to apply a thigh length sequential compression device for a client who is post op. Which of the following actions should the nurse take? - ANSWER- a. measure the circumference of the client's upper leg a nurse is collecting data from a client during a routine prenatal visit. The client is in their second trimester of pregnancy and reports feeling dizzy, has a racing heart, and becomes pale while lying on their back. Which of the following actions should the nurse take? - ANSWER- d. position the client on their left side a nurse in an acute setting is assisting in collecting client information to include in a referral for a physical therapist. Which of the following information should the nurse plan to include? - ANSWER- b. physical assessment findings a nurse is collecting data from a client who has acute cholecystitis. which of the following findings should the nurse expect? - ANSWER- b. pain in the right upper abdomen a nurse is reinforcing teaching about newborn care with a new guardian. Which of the following statements by the guardian indicates an understanding of the teaching? - ANSWER- c. i will wash my babys face with a warm wet washcloth without soap a nurse is reinforcing teaching with new parents about car seat safety. Which of the following instructions should the nurse include? - ANSWER- d. place the shoulder harness at the level of the infants shoulders a nurse is reinforcing teaching with a client who has a new prescription for albuterol PRN. The nurse should reinforce with the client that the medication can help treat which of the following manifestations? - ANSWER- a. shortness of breath a nurse is contributing to an in service for newly licensed nurses about situations requiring an incident report. Which of the following examples should the nurse include? - ANSWER- a. a nurse discovers that an electronic lv pump delivered twice the prescribed amount of fluid to a child a nurse is collecting data from a client who is at 12 weeks of gestation. The client states weve been trying to get pregnant for several months but now im not sure im ready. which of the following responses should the nurse make? - ANSWER- c. many women experience feelings of ambivalence during pregnancy a nurse is assisting with the care of a client who is receiving chemotherapy and radiation for advanced breast cancer. The client states I am thinking about stopping the treatment. which of the following responses should the nurse make? - ANSWER- b. tell me more about what you are thinking a nurse enters a room of a school age child and finds them on the floor experiencing a tonic clonic seizure. Which of the following actions should the nurse take? - ANSWER- c. place a pillow under the childs head a nurse is collecting data from a client who has DKA. Which of the following findings should the nurse expect? - ANSWER- d. fruity breath odor a charge nurse is monitoring a group of assistive personnel regarding the use of gloves in contact isolation. For which of the following actions by an AP should the charge nurse intervene/ - ANSWER- a. removes gloves last after other personal protective equipment.

a nurse is reinforcing teaching with a parent of a newborn about home safety precautions. Which of the following statements by the parent indicates an understanding of the teaching? - ANSWER- i will make sure than i can fit one finger between the mattress and the side of my newborns crib a nurse is collecting data from a 9 year old during a well child visit. Which of the following findings should the nurse expect? - ANSWER- a. grasps concept of cause and effect

b. demonstrates self centered control
c. expresses conflict over independence and control
d. displays emotional detachment from parents a nurse is reinforcing teaching with a client who is at 12 weeks of gestation and has hyperemesis gravidarum. which of the following client statements indicate an understanding of the nurses instructions? - ANSWER- a. i will eat or drink something every 2 to 3 hours throughout the day a nurse on a hospice unit is caring for a client who has a cancer and is in the active phase of dying. Which of the following findings requires intervention by the nurse/ - ANSWER- a. an ap is encouraging intake of oral fluids a nurse is assisting with the care of a client who has schizophrenia and auditory hallucinations. Which of the following responses should the nurse make? - ANSWER- c. lets talk about what the voices are saying to you a nurse is assisting with the care of a client who is receiving a continuous iv infusion. which of the following indicates fluid volume excess - ANSWER- c. distended neck veins a nurse is caring for a client who has a femur fracture with the leg in bucks traction. which of the following actions should the nurse take - ANSWER- c. compare bilateral pedal pulses a nurse is caring for a client who is 2 days post op following an above the knee amputation. which of the following actions should the nurse take to promote progression toward independence and mobility for the client? - ANSWER- d. encourage the client to use the overbed trapeze a nurse is reinforcing teaching with the guardian of a 2 month old infant about immunizations. which of the following statements by a guardian indicates an understanding of the teaching - ANSWER- a. my baby will receive the rotavirus immunization orally

b. i should expect my baby to have a high fever for 24 hours after an immunization
c. i should not feed my baby anything for 2 hours prior to an immunization

d. my baby will receive three doses of the meningococcal immunization before kindergarten a nurse is reinforcing teaching about palliative care to a client who has cancer. Which of the following statements should the nurse make? - ANSWER- a. it enhances quality of life by promoting comfort a community health nurse is assisting with the development of a pamphlet regarding choking hazards for toddlers. Which of the following foods should the nurse include? - ANSWER- grapes a nurse is reinforcing teaching with a client who has cystocele. Which of the following statements by the client indicates an understanding of the teaching? - ANSWER- d. i will practice perineal exercises to decrease urinary leakage a nurse is caring for a client who suddenly develops chest pain and dyspnea. which of the following actions should the nurse take first? - ANSWER- elevate the head of the client's bed a nurse is caring for a client who has dementia. which of the following findings should the nurse expect? - ANSWER- b. acute onset of confusion a nurse is caring for a client who was admitted for observation following a head injury. which of the following findings by the nurse indicates the client is experiencing increased ICP - ANSWER- irritability a nurse is caring for a client who has recently died. which of the following actions should the nurse take? - ANSWER- b. place a pillow under the client's head a nurse on a med surgical unit is assisting with the admission of a client who has advanced lung cancer. which of the following statements regarding advance directives should the nurse take? - ANSWER- b. document the clients decisions about end of life care in the med record a nurse is collecting data from a client who is 12 hours post op following intestinal surgery. which of the following findings should the nurse report to the charge nurse prior to the clients ambulation? - ANSWER- oxygen sat 90% a nurse is caring for a client who speaks a different language than the nurse. the client's partner tells the nurse that the client would like to go home against medical advice. which of the following actions should the nurse take? - ANSWER- request the services of an interpreter to determine the client's wishes a nurse in a providers office is caring for a group of clients who have communicable diseases. Which of the following infections should the nurse report to the state health department? - ANSWER- c. neisseria gonorrhoeae a nurse is preparing to delegate the client care to an ap which of the following information should the nurse verify prior to delegations - ANSWER- b. the ap's job description a home health nurse is conducting a home inspection for a client who is at risk for falls. Which of the following instructions should the nurse provide for the client? - ANSWER- move the clients bed to the main floor of the house a nurse is collecting data from a client who received oxytocin 10 units IM 30 mins ago for excessive vaginal bleeding. Which of the following findings should the nurse expect? - ANSWER- client report of uterine cramping a nurse in a providers office is reinforcing teaching about skin care with a client who has new diagnosis of systemic lupus erythematosus. Which of the following statements by the client indicates an understanding of the teaching? - ANSWER- i will dry my skin by patting it with a towel a nurse is collecting data from a 4 month old infant at a well child visit. For which of the following findings should the nurse notify the provider? - ANSWER- presence of grasp reflex a nurse is collecting data from a client who is 8 hours postoperative following an appendectomy. Which of the following manifestations is the best indications that the client needs a PRN analgesic - ANSWER- the client reports pain as 7 on a scale of 0-10 a nurse is reinforcing teaching with the support person of a client who is in the first stage of labor. Which of the following instructions should the nurse include regarding effleurage? - ANSWER- gently stroke her abdomen during contractions a nurse is assisting with the admission of an adolescent client who is suspected to have bacterial meningitis. Which of the following findings should the nurse expect? - ANSWER- nuchal rigidity a nurse is about to administer an intermittent enteral feeding to a client who has an NG tube in place. Besides obtaining an xray, which of the following methods should the nurse use to verify placement - ANSWER- test the ph of the gastric aspirate a nurse working in a clinic is reinforcing with a client who has hep a. which of the following client statements indicates an understanding of the teaching? - ANSWER- i will use different hand towels than others in my home a nurse is reinforcing teaching with a client who has a prescription for ferrous sulfate elixir. Which of the following statements by the client indicates an understanding of the teaching? - ANSWER- i will mix the medication with a full glass of water