

ATI Version B

1. A nurse is providing teaching about sumatriptan to a client. Which of the following statements by the client indicates an understanding of the teaching?

b. "I will take this medication at the onset of a migraine."

2. A nurse is caring for a client who has a new diagnosis of Chlamydia trachomatis. Which of the following actions should the nurse take?

a. Report the infection to the state department of health

A nurse teaching a client who has new diagnosis of diabetes mellitus about foot care. Which of the following instructions should the nurse include in teaching?

c. Wear clean cotton socks every day (prevent bacteria )

A nurse is planning to delegate task to an assistive personnel (AP). Which of the following tasks should the nurse assign to the AP?

d. Record a client's blood pressure reading by 1000 (delegation rights timeframe)

A nurse is caring for a client who is at 20 weeks of gestation and reports urinary frequency. Which of the following actions is appropriate?

d. Obtain a specimen for culture and sensitivity

A nurse is preparing to administer several medications through a client's nasogastrintestinal tube. The nurse should ask the pharmacist about the availability of a different form for which of the following medications?

c. Enteric-coated aspirin ( because the drug can only be broken done with enzymes in the intestine only)

A nurse is caring for a client who has prescriptions for furosemide and gentamicin. For which of the following complications should the nurse monitor the client?

b. Ototoxicity

A nurse is teaching a parent of a school-age child who is to begin a daily dose of methylphenidate. Which of the following should the nurse include in the teaching?

d. "You should administer the medication after breakfast." (this med cuts children's appetite and stimulates the child to focus)

A nurse is providing dietary teaching to a client who has heart failure. Which of the following recommendations is appropriate for this client?

c. Encourage seasoning with dry herbs

A nurse is reviewing legal issues in healthcare with a group of newly licensed nurses. Which of the following recommendations should the nurse make?

d. Obtain personal professional liability insurance coverage (malpractice insurance is a must for new nurses)

A nurse is caring for an infant who is in contact isolation and received a blood transfusion. Which of the following actions is appropriate for the nurse to take to provide cost-effective care?

d. Bring in formula as needed (to avoid waste; patient on contact isolation, if you bring a lot in and don't use it you will have to waste the formula)

A nurse is caring for a preschool child who is dehydrated. Which of the following assessment findings indicates moderate dehydration?

b. Oliguria (little urine)

A nurse is developing a plan of care for an older adult client who has hearing loss. Which of the following instructions should the nurse include in the plan?

a. Rephrase statements that the client misunderstands

A nurse has received clearance to go back to work after an occupational injury to her back. To reduce the risk of future lifting injuries, which of the following principles should the nurse use when lifting objects?

c. Keep the object close to her body as she lifts it. (bend at the knees)

A nurse is collaborating with social services in the discharge planning for a young adult client who is below the poverty income level and will require home IV therapy. Which of the following resources should the nurse recommend? (Select all that apply).

b. Food stamps d. Medicaid

A nurse is assessing a client who received a Mantoux skin test 72 hr ago for tuberculosis screening. Which of the following findings indicates a positive test result?

b. An elevated, hardened area

A nurse is planning care for a group of clients. Which of the following methods should the nurse use to manage time effectively?

b. Gather supplies prior to completing a dressing change

A nurse is providing care for a client following a thoracentesis. If the client develops a pneumothorax, which of the following assessment findings should the nurse expect?

b. Pain on inhalation

A nurse is caring for a client who is 2 hr postoperative following a cardiac catheterization. Which of the following is the priority assessment finding?

b. Absence of pedal pulse in the affected extremity

A charge nurse is providing teaching to a newly licensed nurse about acceptable client identifiers before administering medications. Which of the following statements by the newly licensed nurse requires intervention?

c. "I should check the client's room number prior to giving medication."

A charge nurse is orienting a newly licensed nurse to the telemetry unit. Which of the following should the charge nurse identify as the purpose of telemetry monitoring?

c. To identify dysrhythmias

A nurse is caring for a client who has bipolar disorder. Which of the following client findings is an indication that the client is about to experience a manic phase?

c. The client is restless and has changes in his sleep pattern

A nurse is teaching a client who has atrial fibrillation and is starting taking dabigatran. Which of the following statements by the client indicates an understanding of the teaching?

d. "I should keep the medication in the original container"

A nurse is planning care for a client who follows Buddhist dietary practices. Which of the following food selections should the nurse recommend for the client's meal tray?

d. Spinach and strawberry salad

A nurse in a long-term care facility is caring for an older adult client who has dementia. The client believes he needs to get ready for work and is becoming increasingly agitated. Which of the following actions should the nurse take?

a. Assist the client in selecting clothing for the day (distract patient)

A nurse is caring for a client who has a prescription for a peripheral IV catheter. After puncturing the skin with the vascular access device and noting a blood return in the flashback chamber, which of the following actions should the nurse perform next? a

Advance the catheter into the vein

A nurse in an emergency department is planning care for a client who has abdominal trauma from a motor-vehicle crash. Which of the following provide prescriptions should the nurse implement first?

c. Place a large-bore IV catheter in an upper extremity

A nurse in a family health clinic is caring for a client who requests information regarding the correct use of condoms. Which of the following statements should the nurse make?

d. "When using implanted contraceptive methods, condoms should also be used to protect against STDs"

A nurse is admitting a client who has dementia to a long-term care facility. The client tells the nurse that she lived in this facility years ago and took care of all the residents by herself. The nurse should document this as which of the following findings?

d. Confabulation

A nurse is admitting a client who is to undergo paracentesis for removal of ascitic fluid. Which of the following actions should the nurse take?

d. Weigh the client before and after the procedure

A nurse is caring for a client following a gastric resection. The client experiences cramping, an increased pulse rate, dizziness and nausea after eating a meal. Which of the following instructions should the nurse provide to the client?

c. Drink liquids at least 1 hr or after meals

A nurse is administering furosemide IV bolus to a client who has fluid volume excess. The nurse should recognize which of the following as an indication that the medication has been effective?

c. Weight loss

A nurse is providing prenatal teaching for a client who has herpes simplex virus. Which of the following client statements indicates an understanding of the teaching?

c. "I should have a cesarean delivery if I'm having an outbreak"

A nurse is providing an in-service about client evacuation during a fire. Which of the following clients should the nurse instruct the staff to evacuate first?

b. A client who is ambulatory and receiving oxygen

A nurse is teaching the family of an infant who has decreased cardiac output due to congenital heart disease. Which of the following instructions should the nurse include in the teaching?

c. Observe for manifestations of hunger in order to feed the infant before crying occurs

A nurse is caring for a client who states that the first day of her menstrual period was June 14. Using Nagele's rule, the nurse should calculate the client's estimated date of delivery as which of the following?

c. March 21