

Unit 1 - Session 2

_____ is the act of translating print into meaning. Correct Answer: Reading _____ is the written or spoken communication "or the exchange of information and ideas, usually longer than a sentence, between individuals or between the writer and the reader. Correct Answer: Discourse

Learning two languages simultaneously, the brain establishes a separate _____ for each language. Correct Answer: neural system

The _____ of typical reading begins around age five and continues for about six years until full reading fluency is achieved. Correct Answer: progression _____ comprehension may exceed reading comprehension. The reverse is not true. Correct Answer: Listening