

ATI ADULT MED SURG RN 3.0: RN INTRODUCTION TO CRITICAL CARE AND EMERGENCY NURSING ASSESSMENT RESULTS

Question: 1 of 25

Time Elapsed: 00:00:49

FLAG

A nurse in the emergency department (ED) is triaging a client who is accompanied by an individual that refuses to leave the client alone with the nurse. While assessing the client, the nurse notes an unusual tattoo on the client's inner thigh, as well as multiple bruises near the groin and lower abdomen. The nurse should consider that the client may need further evaluation for which of the following?

- Family counseling
- A potential infection of the inner thigh
- Potential human trafficking
- An association with a club or community group

CONTINUE

Question: 2 of 25

Time Elapsed: 00:01:16

FLAG

A newly licensed nurse working in the emergency department (ED) is caring for a client who has been sexually assaulted. Which of the following reasons is the most frequently cited for not reporting sexual assaults?

- Minimizing what happened
- Fear of retribution
- Fear of being stigmatized
- Protecting someone

PREVIOUS

CONTINUE

Question: 3 of 25

Time Elapsed: 00:02:18

FLAG

A nurse is triaging clients in the emergency department using the three-tiered triaging system. Which of the following clients should the nurse place in the delayed category?

- A client is admitted with combative and hostile behavior and is screaming that they want to hurt themselves.
- A client is reporting a sudden onset of palpitations and anxiety. Findings indicate a heart rate of 135/min, and blood pressure of 120/70 mm Hg.
- A client is reporting generalized abdominal pain, nausea, vomiting, and diarrhea for 3 days. Findings indicate that vital signs are stable, and the client has no comorbidities and is taking no medications.
- A client is admitted with a temperature of 39° C (102.2° F) and lethargy. The client has bilateral breast cancer and is currently receiving chemotherapy.

PREVIOUS

CONTINUE

Question: 4 of 25

Time Elapsed: 00:02:36

FLAG

A nurse is preparing to discharge a client who was treated for injuries related to sexual assault. Which of the following is the most important action for the nurse to take before the client leaves the facility?

- Ask the client if they wish to return to their home.
- Ask the client if they have support at home.
- Ask the client if they have any questions.
- Ask the client if they want a follow-up appointment with social services.

PREVIOUS

CONTINUE

Question: 5 of 25

Time Elapsed: 00:03:17

FLAG

A triage nurse is evaluating a client who reports taking anticoagulation medication and arrived at the emergency department with bleeding from both nares, which slowed after applying direct pressure to the nose. To which of the following Emergency Severity Index (ESI) levels should the nurse assign this client?

ESI Level 1

ESI Level 2

ESI Level 3

ESI Level 4

PREVIOUS

CONTINUE

Question: 6 of 25

Time Elapsed: 00:03:36

FLAG

A nurse is caring for a group of clients in the emergency department (ED) who were all exposed to a chemical spill at their job site. A student nurse asks the charge nurse where to find information about safety regarding the chemical spill. Which of the following responses by the charge nurse instructs the student to find more information about a chemical spill in the workplace?

- "Look up the Safety Data Sheets (SDS) on the hospital Wi-Fi network."
- "Do a web search for the specific chemicals and follow the directions."
- "Ask a more experienced coworker that has handled these types of emergencies."
- "Ask the supervisor of the workers that were brought to the ED."

PREVIOUS

CONTINUE

Question: 7 of 25

Time Elapsed: 00:04:11

FLAG

A preceptor in the critical care unit is orienting a newly licensed nurse to the code cart. The preceptor communicates to the newly licensed nurse that the code carts should be checked at which of the following intervals?

Every 24 hr

Every 72 hr

Every week

Every 2 weeks

PREVIOUS

CONTINUE

Question: 8 of 25

Time Elapsed: 00:04:58

🚩 FLAG

A newly licensed nurse is providing care to a client admitted to the emergency department (ED) who is experiencing acute heroin toxicity. The client becomes violent and strikes the nurse. The nurse speaks with the manager about violence in the ED. Which of the following statements represents how the nurse manager should respond to the nurse?

- "Clients may fear the possible outcome of their clinical situation, leading to stress."
- "The ED is in a violent section of the city."
- "The security guard's presence heightens the client's fear of being arrested."
- "Families secretly provide illicit drugs to clients while they await treatment."

← PREVIOUS

CONTINUE →